Options for Working Families

Preschoolers

Kids’ Place is an excellent option for preschool-age children. We are an especially good match for working parents who are looking for a school readiness program that offers a more than ‘just daycare’ experience. Sound familiar? Come join us!

- Open Mon.-Fri. from 6:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. year round
- 33 months - age 5
- NAEYC accredited
- Excellent teachers! Highly qualified, long term staff.
- A program of St. Louis Park Public Schools Community Education
- Children build friendships that will follow them to kindergarten
- Balanced daily schedule includes outdoor play twice daily
- SLP Early Learning PreK curriculum: Scholastic Big Day for PreK
- Kindergarten readiness lessons promote children’s social-emotional development and skill-building in the core areas of literacy, math, science and social studies.
- Art, crafts, singing, dancing, play and more!

Two Locations

Kids’ Place classes are offered at Central and Lenox Community Centers.

Options at Central

Kids’ Place offers preschool in four classrooms. Two classes for younger children ages 33 months-4 years and two classes for older preschoolers who will attend kindergarten the following fall. All classes are open from 6:30 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. Parents may register for 2-5 full days per week. Children attending our Year Before Kindergarten (YBK) class must be 4 by September 1 to enroll.

Options at Lenox

Lenox offers two classrooms for children age 33 months - 5 years. This location is ideal for families who want full day preschool during typical school hours. Register your child for 2-5 days per week between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Parents have the option to extend all or some of the days between 6:30 and 6:00. See rates below for more information.
